

Strengthening SEMH Through Parental Engagement

Project Aims:

- Support parents with strategies that support the mental health and wellbeing of their children
- Strengthen parent partnerships that restore confidence and improve pupils' SEMH
- Create a culture of relational behaviours that impact positively on home and school links

Programme Overview & Content

Target Audience

- Parental Involvement Workers or Similar
- PSHE / Mental Health Leads or Similar

What to expect from us

- Network forum led by Professor in Race & Education
- Optional termly networks
- Additional Market Place webinar
- Six half termly webinars <https://t.co/CRfjltf2Cr?amp=1>

How to gain Mark of Excellence

What we expect from Attendees:

- Attendance/ engagement with 6 webinars; recordings made available
- Content of training is shared with relevant colleagues across school
- Post webinar online questionnaire completed during webinar
- Completion of 6 Gap tasks post webinar returned to @Exceedinstitute@exceedacademiestrust.co.uk

How to gain Mark of Excellence

- Impact measures in partnership with CAER
- Baseline Diagnostic completed in Oct completed by Headteacher/ SLT (10 mins)
- 20min Zoom Interview with Headteacher (SLT) June 2021
- Baseline Diagnostic repeated June/July
- End of programme evaluations

Gap Task in More Detail

Webinar Title : Intended Outcomes
What Changes did you make?	What strategies and resources from the session or elsewhere did you put into practice? Give a brief overview:
What difference, if any, has this made? Why was that? If not, why not?	Give a brief reflection- (pictorial or narrative) of the impact this has made:

Enhanced Opportunity

For a limited number of schools enhanced offer that improves SEMH provision in your school:

- Whole school wellbeing review
- Professional Learning Partner to support your school
- SEMH webinars for staff
- 2 days training for Parental Involvement Worker or similar
- Mental First Aid Training

<https://tinyurl.com/yymmlzmu>

Celebration Ceremony

July / September
2021

