

BRADFORD INCLUSION CONFERENCE

FREE EVENT

Enabling every learner to thrive in Bradford's classrooms

ABOUT THE EVENT

Bradford schools are rising to complex, locally-rooted challenges - and doing so with determination, skill and ambition. This free one-day conference unites partners from across the system to support school and curriculum leaders in ensuring every pupil in Bradford can flourish.

Sessions will spotlight evidence-informed inclusive practice already happening in Bradford classrooms, offering practical examples, insight, and challenge. Delegates will have the opportunity to reflect on local needs, connect with colleagues across the region, share and celebrate success, and build capacity for continued improvement.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Gary Aubin

Gary is the Education Endowment Foundation's SEND Associate. He supports schools and Trusts in their leadership of SEND and is author of The Lone SENDCO.

AIMS OF THE DAY

- Bradford leaders can implement strategies that promote belonging and remove barriers to learning.
- Bradford leaders are equipped to use professional development as a lever for inclusive school improvement.
- Bradford leaders understand what evidence-informed professional development is available in Bradford to help teachers meet diverse needs.
